New Prayer Requests

Rachelle Leslie is home recovering from gallbladder surgery last Saturday. Give thanks for the medical team that took care of her and prayers for a continued, uneventful recovery.

Salley Karam had surgery Tuesday at St. Joseph Hospital. The procedure was to treat an excess build-up of fluid in her brain. The surgery was successful and Salley is home recovering. Pray for full recovery and return to good health.

A complete list of ongoing prayer requests can be found in the foyer. If you or a family member are sick or hospitalized, have a birth of a new baby, or death in the family, please let our elders or staff know so we can share your needs with church family. You can also join our prayer chain email list by going to www.christviewchristian.org/prayer.
